

Telecom Customer Churn Analysis

244K

Total customers

49K

churned customers

20.05%

churn rate%

₹ 4,139M

Revenue lost

4.69

Avg tenure years

churn rate%

Avg calls per customer

Avg data_used per customer

Avg sms per customer

Avg tenure years

Airtel

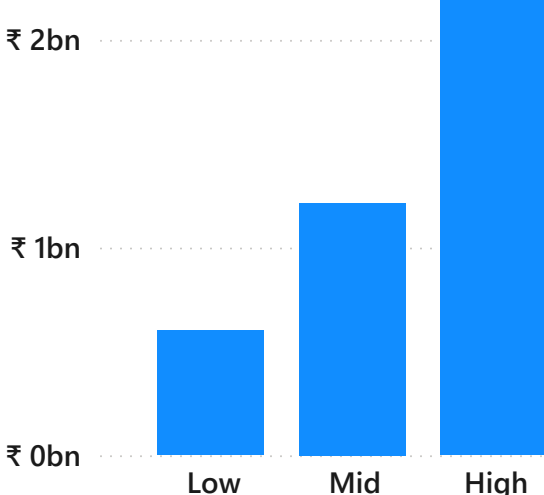

Churn Rate By Telecom Partner

Churn Rate By Gender

Revenue Lost By Salary Band

4.69

4.68

Hyderabad Mumbai Delhi Chennai Bangalore Kolkata

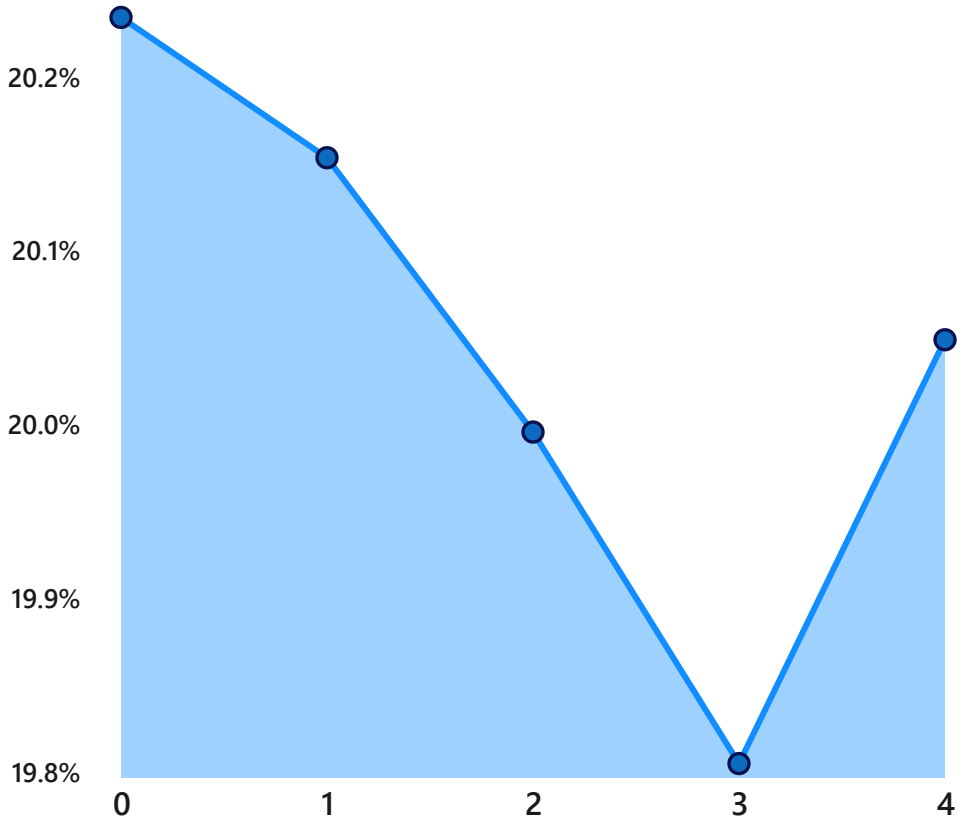

Reliance Jio

Vodafone

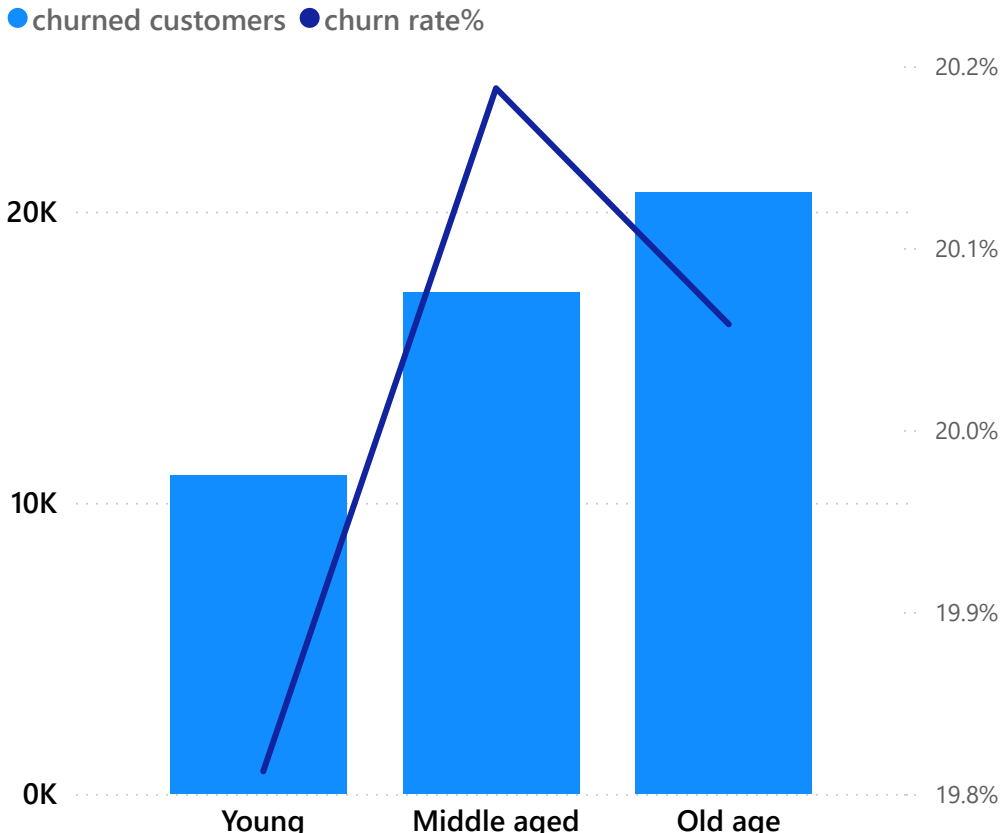

F

M

Churn Rate By Dependents

Churned Customers and Churn Rate By Age Group

Key Insights

- 1 in 5 customers are churning — overall churn rate stands at 20.05%
- Churn is uniform across all providers — Airtel leads at 20.37%, BSNL lowest at 19.86%
- Gender has minimal impact — Female 20.30% vs Male 19.88%
- High salary customers drive maximum revenue loss — ₹2bn at risk
- Customers with 0 dependents churn most — single customers need targeted retention
- New customers churn most — stronger onboarding strategy needed
- Hyderabad highest churn at 20.42%, Delhi lowest at 19.75% — city-wise usage metrics available via interactive parameter

Actions

- Strengthen new customer onboarding
- Survey high salary customers on pain points
- Introduce loyalty programs for regular customers
- Offer personalized plans for single customers
- Focus on city-wise targeted retention strategies